

Bird Studies Canada and the Norfolk Field Naturalists

2006 BALD EAGLE COLOURING CONTEST

Bird Studies Canada, a non-profit organization focusing on the conservation of wild birds and their habitats, is asking kids of all ages to take part in their 2006 colouring contest. Kids ages 2 and up are encouraged to colour in the photo of the eagle in its aquatic environment and enter it to win a prize and a chance to be published in Bird Studies Canada's widely distributed BirdWatch Canada magazine.

2006 Winners:

Ages 5 and under, 1st place:
Jacqueline Elgersma, age 4

Ages 6 to 9, 1st place:
Katie Barber, age 8

Best in show

Ages 10 to 12, 1st place:
Sarah Cattell, age 11

Ages 13 and Over, 1st place:
Susan Dudd, age 13

